Stewardship Reflection for this Week:
In today’s Gospel, we hear of the Beatitudes. May we learn from Christ’s teaching so we may one day be saints in Heaven.

Living Stewardship:
Today, spend a little extra time in prayer asking your favorite saint for his or her intercession. Tomorrow, on All Souls day, pray for those souls in purgatory.

Thank you for sharing your gifts and talents here in our parish community.

North Fork Parish Outreach Thanksgiving Appeal
Parish Outreach Thanksgiving Baskets
Some families share a tradition of putting together a Thanksgiving basket for local families who cannot afford a holiday meal. A gift card is suggested for the meat portion - this solves the problems of refrigerating the turkey - and all the basics for a family of four.

Our Parish Outreach will gratefully accept any such “meal in a box” on November 16th, 17, and 18th. Kindly bring your boxed meal, from 10:15 am to 12:45 pm, to the Outreach Pantry on the corner of Front Street and 6th Avenue in Greenport, in the school opposite St. Agnes Church (enter the front door and walk downstairs).

May our Lord richly bless you for brightening up the holiday for others.
MEMORIAL MASS FOR ALL SOULS

ROSARY ALTAR SOCIETY MEETING – TUESDAY NOVEMBER 10

Our next Rosary Altar Society meeting will be Tuesday, November 10, 2020. We will begin with the rosary in church at 6:30 pm followed by our meeting downstairs and a brown bag auction. Please bring an item which is already wrapped and can be put into a brown bag or any kind of wrapping. This will keep everything sanitary.

We can safely social distance as we will only seat several people at each table and can spread out. Also, please bring your own drink as we will not be making coffee or tea. Wrapped cookies/cakes will be provided so we will have something to eat. Hopefully, we can make some money for our Rosary so we will be able to give Christmas donations to the Church. Looking forward to seeing you there.

Come and enjoy a fun evening, and bring a friend.

The Solemnity of All Saints

Reading 1 | Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, “Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.” I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel.

After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice:

“Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb.”

All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed:

“Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen.”

Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, “Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?” I said to him, “My lord, you are the one who knows.” He said to me, “These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb.”

Responsorial Psalm | Ps 24:1bc–2, 3–4ab, 5–6

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The LORD’s are the earth and its fullness;
the world and those who dwell in it.
For he founded it upon the seas
and established it upon the rivers.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Who can ascend the mountain of the LORD?
or who may stand in his holy place?
One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean,
who desires not what is vain.

Reading 2 | 1 John 3:1-3

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

Gospel | Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”
WOULD YOU LIKE TO TALK TO JESUS?
Well, sure you can—any time, any place. But at St. Patrick’s we have a special opportunity: EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT on the altar on Thursday mornings from 8:30 am to 10:00 am. It’s an opportunity to meditate on the wonders of the Blessed Sacrament and what it means to us. To thank Jesus for the good things in our lives. To ask for help with the things that are not so good. Feel free to stop in any time from 8:30 am to 10:00 am.

You will be glad you did. So will Jesus.

O Blessed Mother: Pray for the USA!
Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, Patroness of the United States of America, please help our country. Help us to return to what is decent, right, and proper.
Help us to return to respect for ourselves and others, to truth in dealing with ourselves and others, to self-control and self-discipline, and especially to a deep love for your Son and His teachings.
Protect us from those who would destroy us from within.
Our Lady, we place ourselves and our country under your mantle.

Pray for us and help us. Amen
